

Sync Matrix Mode Presentation using one Di-VentiX II

*Video Output Card (optional) provides SD or HD TV formats in various signals and connectors from Composite Video to HD SDI. This Output can be used to record the show by outputting the same contents as the main output or to display the Preview image on video monitors. In addition, it can be used as a real preview output in case of Sync Matrix or Embedded Edge Blending Mode.